Thank You Jesus!

“There is more hunger for love and appreciation in this world than for bread”

(St. Theresa of Calcutta)

The celebration of the Eucharist is the celebration of our deep sense of gratitude to God for his everlasting love and mercy. This celebration invites and sends us to continue to recognize and appreciate God's ever-abiding presence. One of the central themes of this Sunday's readings is the invitation to always find something in our lives to say, Thank You, Jesus. More still, gratitude to God is an act of faith. It reminds us constantly that faithful God will never abandon us, just as St. Paul emphasizes in the first reading (2 Timothy 2:8-13), "If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself."

In this Sunday's first reading (2 Kings 5:14-17), the story of Naaman, the leper, is an excellent example of how we should express our profound gratitude to God and to the people God uses to shower his benevolence to us. Naaman returned to Prophet Elisha, the Man of God, who interceded on his behalf for God's healing upon him. Similarly, the Samaritan's deep appreciation of Jesus's healing in this Sunday Gospel (Luke 17:11-19) reminds us that being grateful to God for his presence in our lives is an act of faith. Specifically, Jesus praised the act of faith of the Samaritan leper, who was the only one who returned to say thanks out of the nine healed. Jesus told him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Our ability to recognize and appreciate the beautiful things God has blessed us with helps us know that God has not abandoned us in the face of our challenges. Also, we are called to appreciate the gifts of people God uses to bless us, just as Naaman recognized that the healing of God came to him through the intercession of the Prophet Elisha. We must ask ourselves; do I appreciate the people God has placed in my life through which I receive his love and kindness? In addition, how can I use God's gifts to express my gratitude to people in my life? Let us ask the good Lord to give us the faith we need to acknowledge the beautiful things he is doing in our lives and be able to say always, 'Thank You, Jesus! Amen.

Every month of October, the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month. This month, we reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human person made in the image and likeness of God and help to build in different ways a culture of life that cherishes and protects human life at every stage. The month of God is also the Month of the Most Holy Rosary, and the feast of the Holy Rosary is celebrated on October 7th. Also, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared on October 13th, 1917, for the last time to shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal, urging them to "say the rosary every day to obtain peace for the world." As an SFC parish community, this October, different families will lead the Rosary every Thursday at 6.30 PM inside the church. I hope you will find time to join this weekly parish family Rosary.

THE GIFT OF SALVATION

Naaman and the leper who returned to Jesus saw God's hand in their healing. Only through God's intervention could they have been cured. Through this recognition of God's presence and action in their lives, they grew in faith. For what are you grateful? Pause for a moment to reflect on all of the blessings in your life. God is the source of these many blessings—life, love, gifts, and so much more. Of all the gifts for which we must be grateful, none is as great, or as astounding, as the gift of salvation offered to us through Jesus Christ. Let this sink in, not only in your mind but in your heart. Like Naaman and the leper who returned, allow yourself to be touched by the immense love of God for you. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Christian liturgy has always contained an opportunity to make a choice for sharing. From the beginning, Christians pooled their resources, especially for the care of widows and orphans, at the weekly Eucharist. Over the years, the collection became detached from the liturgy and baskets or plates would be passed through the community while the Mass was going on at the altar, or contributions would be collected at the doors. In Milan's Ambrosian Rite, these gifts have always brought to the altar by lay people in procession. In German countries, the ancient custom was for the entire assembly to process with their gifts—first the men, then the women, then the priests and deacons—to offer their gifts at the altar. The old ceremony of canonization included a curious vestige of this procession: people would present the pope with two loaves of bread, two barrels of wine and water, five candles, and three cages containing pigeons or turtledoves! — © J. S. Paluch Co.

On our Patroness:St. Frances Cabrini (1850-1917)*Feast Day: November 13th

Did you know that as a child, Mother Cabrini was known for being a spiritual person?

There are many pious stories of Mother Cabrini's childhood and it can be difficult to know which are true and which are myths. However, there are enough themes to shed light on her character: she was incredibly self-controlled and self-possessed even as a girl. One story tells of an earthquake which shook the village. In the aftermath, a young Maria Francesca was found in the corner of a room quietly praying. As a young girl, she somehow got the idea that children in China did not have sweets. Since she wanted to be a missionary to China, she stopped eating sweets in preparation for her missionary work. Yet, she was a normal child who was saddened but did not sulk when her health did not permit her to partake in festas (saint feast day celebrations) which were common in her village.

Mother Cabrini's life teaches us that saints are not that different from us. Mother Cabrini shared in the normal joys and sorrows of life but offered those desires to God and trusted Him.

The Valley Catholic's Quarterly Print and Monthly Email Publications Inspire Missionary Disciples across the Diocese of San José.

Sharing stories of living a life of Christ is as old as the Gospels themselves. There is something compelling about storytelling to help someone truly connect to the mission of the Church and the person of Jesus Christ. Rather than concentrating on time-dependent news and events, The Valley Catholic Magazine; its newly redesigned online presence, www.thevalleycatholic.org; and its new monthly email newsletter focuses on local multi-lingual feature stories and columns that form, encourage, and equips Catholics to carry out the saving work of Jesus across the Diocese and beyond.

Creative Ways to Pray the Rosary By Darcy Osby

Teaching children to pray the Rosary does not have to be monotonous and painful. Since every child interacts with the world around him or her differently, Howard Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligences can help catechists make praying the Rosary a positive experience. Here are some creative ways to engage the eight "signs" of intelligence proposed by Gardner. Try praying the Rosary using a different technique each month or offer several choices for the class as you pray together.

Linguistic

Provide a written outline of the Rosary, including a summary of the mysteries and a copy of the prayers. Children can make posters that explain how to pray the Rosary and include the text for each of the prayers. Older children can write short reflections for each of the mysteries.

Musical

Sing the prayers. There are several melodies for singing the Lord's Prayer, and a beautiful melody for the Hail Mary can be found at the beginning of the hymn "Hail Mary, Gentle Woman" by Carey Landry. Note that singing slows down the prayers, which provides great time for reflection, but can quickly become tiresome for children. Singing just the first Hail Mary of each decade can be a good compromise.

Logical-Mathematical

The Rosary by following a logical sequence for children who are number-oriented. Making rosaries with string and beads can be a fun activity during which children must count the beads and spaces.

Spatial

Print out a picture of the Rosary; children can color in each bead as they pray. You can also print out pictures of the mysteries for children to color as they reflect on that decade. Another option is to have the children draw illustrations for each mystery.

Bodily-Kinesthetic

Make a walking rosary by hanging papers that symbolize beads around the room. Children can walk from bead to bead as they pray the Rosary. If it is safe to do so, draw beads on the parking lot using sidewalk chalk. Another option is to make a giant rosary out of rope and slices of pool noodles. The children can take their places around the rosary and hold up the appropriate beads as they pray together.

Intrapersonal

Provide time for the children to pray by themselves. Praying a decade of the Rosary can be a great quiet activity when a child finishes other work early. Be sure to provide quiet time for personal reflection as each mystery is announced. A guided meditation can help children personally reflect on each mystery.

Naturalistic

Pray outside. If your parish has a garden or grotto, spend time praying there. If the garden or grotto has a statue of Mary, ask if you can plant flowers near the statue, or create a flower crown to place on Mary's head.

What creative ideas do you have for teaching the Rosary?

This past week, our school children celebrated a beautiful Mass to remember the works of St. Francis Assisi. The students brought pictures of special pets for a "Blessing of the Animals." After the Mass, our students met with their buddies and participated in activities to honor St. Francis Assisi. Our buddy program partners older students with younger ones.

Please drive carefully while using the streets around our school and while on campus. We have received several complaints about speeding in the neighborhood. The Sheriff is partnering with us to help slow the traffic. The stop sign at Woodard and Esther is particularly concerning because the intersection is very spread out. Please be extra cautious when coming through the intersection. We have also noticed increased handheld cell phone usage by those driving vehicles.

Why Register as a Parishioner?

Every Catholic should be registered in a parish. Beside the active support and involvement that the registration enables, the parish registration is also a mandatory condition for many sacraments including Baptism and Matrimony. *It is therefore important to register at your local parish as soon as you start worshipping there regularly.

- You may request verification letters to sponsor individuals for sacraments, receive sacraments yourself or your child (i.e. marriage, baptism).
- You will receive end-of-the-year tax contribution statements.
- The Diocese will know that our parish has a healthy base of registered, supportive parishioner.
